PROFITABLE ENTERPRISES.

The Tuscarora Times-Review says:

There are two enterprises which would undoubtedly insure profitable returns if inaugurated at our neighboring town of Elko. One is such reduction works as would successfully treat such ores as are mined in the State in the districts within reasonable distance from the Central Pacific Railroad. We have alluded to this matter before and every week's observation tends to more fully convince us that no better investment of capital could be made on one which would result in more immediate, permanent or healthy dividend. Elko is decidedly the best point on the railroad for such works, for with such facilities as they would afford, ore would be supplied from this county alone sufficient to keep them running more than half the time, while other localities would furnish enough to insure their continuous operation. They would monopolize the working of all the Nevada ores which are now sent to Utah, and would give such an impetus to mining as to largely increase the supply from the same districts that are contributing so much to the wealth of our neighboring Territory.

Another enterprise which should engage the attention of the people of the county seat is a pork-packing establishment. There is both material and market for a profitable business in that line, and under the supervision of a person who understands it there can be no reasonable doubt of its success. The pork raised in this vicinity is said to fully equal that of the East which finds its way into the packing establishments there. The climate is favorable and transportation facilities first-class. There is no reason in the world why such an establishment should not furnish the pork supply for all of the territory in the State, on and contiguous to the line of the Central Pacific and connecting railroads. Those are two enterprises which only require the investment of comparatively small amounts of capital to insure wholesome returns to the owners besides adding materially to the general prosperity of the county and State.

RENO'S MAGNANIMITY.

The Carson Appeal of July 8th says:

For many years a sort of irrepressible conflict has been going on between the rival towns of Carson and Reno. On Saturday last Reno invited the citizens of Carson down there and gave them a royal Washoe welcome. It was not a welcome of empty words, but a robust display of open-hearted hospitality, such as comes from the heart.

Mr. Alexander, President of the Day, in his remarks said: "We hope to see the people of Carson make themselves at home here, to-day. This town holds nothing too good for you, we welcome each and every one of you."

The Renoites carried out this welcome to the letter, and the doors of every house and hall were thrown open to the citizens of Carson. On the heels of this comes a dispatch from Reno, published in the Appeal of yesterday, offering in our fiery affliction and proferring money to alleviate any suffering which might exist.

In fights of all descriptions Reno has succeeded in beating Carson, and now it beats us to the earth with kindness. In behalf of the citizens of Carson, the Appeal tenders Reno the thanks of the city, both for its liberal treatment of them on the Fourth and its kindly expressions of sympathy and proffers of aid in our recent visitation of fire.

Judge Chenowith, on behalf of a number of Texas ex-Confederate soldiers, Wednesday presented General Rosecrans with the pistol captured by Texans in the raid on his baggage train in the Summer of 1864. On the stock of the pistol is inscribed the names of the battles in which Rosecrans was victorious. The General was much pleased with the present and the manner of its restoration.

The Mail and Express prints long cablegrams detailing the banquet given by its proprietor in London on the Fourth, when, according to the account, Minister Phelps addressing the Englishmen present, half jocularly laid claim to calling Queen Victoria "our Queen as well as yours."

The President has appointed the following cadets at large to West Point: Don Carlos Buell, Madera S. Keyes, F. D. Hutch, Thomas Newton, L. Ruggles and E. M. Cleary.

Governor Bunn, of Idaho, has tendered his resignation.

Ohio's Governor Consents to Accept Renomination.

WASHINGTON, June 8th.—Governor Hoadley has consented to again be a candidate of the Ohio Democracy for Governor of Ohio. He reached this decision after a consultation with the President, in which the latter promised to give him the assistance of the federal patronage in Ohio to make the fight. Information has been received at Washington from the head center that Governor will have a hard task to secure a re-election even backed by the full strength of the administration. The great ambition of the Democratic leaders in Ohio is to secure a Democrat to succeed Senator Sherman. If they could elect the State ticket, and carry the Legislature as well, no effort would be spared to accomplish such a result; but to do both seems hardly possible, and it is said that the Democratic managers have determined to sacrifice the State ticket, if necessary, to secure a majority in the Legislature. The Prohibition and colored vote in the State, which they hope in some degree to control, will be used whenever possible for the election of members of the Legislature, and the State ticket will be subordinate to the legislative fight. Governor Hoadley's recommendation of ex-Governor Noyes to be the Government Director of the Union Pacific Railroad has greatly annoyed the followers of Payne and McLean. They assert that the Governor imagines himself to be a much greater figure in the politics of the State than he really is, and they propose to rebuke his assumption whenever an opportunity presents itself, and they will knife him without hesitation if any political point can be gained by his defeat.

THE BALANCE OF POWER.

It is understood that when A. G. Hessing, of Chicago, was in Washington, several weeks ago, pressing the claims of Judge Stallo for the Italian Mission, he presented a paper to the President and his Cabinet, which has since been the subject of thoughtful consideration. This paper represents that German naturalized citizens hold the balance of power between the Democrats and Republicans in many of the larger States; that the greater proportion of them had, in consequence of the slavery issue, allied themselves to the Republican party, but that they had become much dissatisfied with that party on account of its intolerance, and at the last election three-fourths of them had voted the Democratic ticket. The importance of retaining this vote is impressed upon the Administration, and Democratic leaders are counseled to adhere faithfully to liberal and enlightened principles, especially that of personal liberty, and to give official appointment to German-Americans standing high in the estimation of their countrymen. Attention is called to Germans who were appointed to prominent places by Lincoln, Grant and Hayes, and the Administration is warned that the future success of the Democratic party in the West depends upon the consideration which it gives to the German element.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE UTAH COMMISSION.

The Boston Herald's Washington special says: The President is understood to be dissatisfied with the way in which the Utah Commission has executed its duties. Its somewhat tentative, timid methods are attributed to the fact that the members of the Commission are all old men. The President thinks the work of the Commission might be much more vigorously done. He regards polygamy as an unmixed evil which ought to be stamped out. He does not think the Commission does its part in an attempt to effect that end. It is understood that after his Summer vacation, the President will reorganize the Utah Commission, with a view to more effective work on its part. There are now three Republicans and two Democrats on the Commission. The two Democrats are said to be no more efficient than the Republicans. They will probably all be removed and some more vigorous men appointed in their places. The President is determined that all the anti-Polygamy laws shall be honestly and earnestly enforced.

The Mail and Express prints long cablegrams detailing the banquet given by its proprietor in London on the Fourth, when, according to the account, Minister Phelps addressing the Englishmen present, half jocularly laid claim to calling Queen Victoria "our Queen as well as yours."

The President has appointed the following cadets at large to West Point: Don Carlos Buell, Madera S. Keyes, F. D. Hutch, Thomas Newton, L. Ruggles and E. M. Cleary.

Governor Bunn, of Idaho, has tendered his resignation.

Pennsylvania Republican Convention.

The Pennsylvania Republican State Convention, called for the purpose of nominating a candidate for State Treasurer, met Wednesday, and after the adoption of a platform, nominated Colonel N. M. Quay, of Beaver, on the first ballot. The platform demands protection to American industry through tariff laws which will effectively stop foreign contract labor; the establishment of a true system of civil service, which will give fixed tenure of office and no removal except for adequate public cause; a closer commercial intercourse with the nations on the American continent. The platform also calls for the repeal of internal revenue taxes except upon spirituous and malt liquors. Public attention is invited to the acts of the present Democratic National and State administration, the unjust war of the former upon offensive partisans, to its hypocritical avoidance of the pledges touching the civil service, to its Star Chamber proceedings against Republicans, for whose removal no public reason can be given, and to its constantly disloyal preference for the rebel elements of the Democratic party at the South and the semi-rebel elements of the same party at the North. With such an administration the Republican party takes direct issue, and carries its appeal to the people disappointed in every reasonable expectation and promise. The other resolutions refer to State matters.

MISS CLEVELAND'S BOOK.

The New York Sun says: "Miss Cleveland's book exhausted three editions before noon yesterday, and the presses began printing the fourth edition. Its sales will be unprecedented, considering the nature of the book, probably reaching over 100,000 copies. The book reviewers have not yet taken it in hand. The Herald says: The book is divided into two parts. In the first occur, it says, George Eliot's poetry, reciprocity, altruistic facts and history; and in the central part, under the general head of "Studies in the Middle Ages" a series of historic essays and chapters on old Rome and New France, Charlemagne, the Monastery, Chivalry and Joan of Arc. The book is dedicated to "My Countrywomen". The following is a passage from her essay on George Eliot: "The irony of fate spares not one shining mark. George Eliot cared most to have the name of a poet. I venture however, to affirm that egotism can never exist in true poetry. Let verse have every quality that delights the sense, captivates the intellect and stirs the heart, yet it lacks that ray which, coming from a sun beyond our system, reaches blends and vivifies and assures the fruition of and longing for immortality in man. And lacking this you have not poetry."

THE PRESIDENT TO TAKE TO THE WOODS.

The Washington Star says the President is preparing to depart from Washington for a Summer vacation. His plans have been arranged, and it is expected that he will be able to get away in a day or two. He will go to New York and betake himself to the woods for a few weeks to get away from the worry and bother of office-seekers and politicians. His plans have been made very quietly, and he will probably leave as soon as the appointed time arrives without making any previous announcement. The President wants a period of perfect rest and does not propose to be followed into his retreat. Office-seekers will wake up some morning and find the White House deserted.

SENATOR M'PHERSON'S TREACHERY.

The story of treachery to the Democratic party by Senator M'Pherson of New Jersey, has been told before, but the Trenton True American, a Democratic paper, comes out in a long article giving all the details. Peter H. Watson Assistant Secretary of War under Lincoln, declares that he heard the details and the bargain made recently by Senator M'Pherson, by which Sewell, Republican, was to succeed Randolph, Democratic, in the Senate, in the interest of the Pennsylvania and Southern Pacific Railways. Though the story has often been told, to-day, the plain developments will unquestionably create excitement in Jersey.

SPECULATIVE EXCHANGES.

Depression of Business Affecting the Prosperity of Exchanges in New York.

The New York Herald says: The long-continued business depression, which has been so widespread and general is having a serious effect upon the prosperity of the various speculative exchanges and the value of membership therein. The steady decline which is going on in the price of seats in some of the exchanges is rather startling and causes a great deal of uneasiness if not alarm, to the owners of such property. For instance, there are 400 members of the Cotton Exchange, and their certificates, at one time worth $6,000 can now be bought for $2,000, while the Produce Exchange seats, which sold in the latter part of January last for $3,410 are now worth only 2,650.

Some of the Produce Exchange members think they have especial cause for apprehension. Not only is their business affected by the general disinclination of the outside to speculate on margins, thus leaving the brokers with such few orders and such slender revenues from commissions that they try to make both ends meet by taking flyers on the market on their own account, but they also realized that the issue of the Produce Exchange certificates has been largely overdone, and that of 3,000 memberships fully one-third are unnecessary, and in the opinion of many old members should never have been issued at all. These two, causes the natural depression in business and a large surplus in memberships combine to give grain and provision-brokers good reason for anxiety as to where the money is to come from to pay the big mortgages on their big new building, the finest in the world devoted to similar purposes.

Harriet H. Moore, a middle-aged widow, has commenced a breach of promise suit of $225,000 against Moses Hopkins, aged seventy. The defendant is a brother of the late Mark Hopkins, the railroad magnate, from whom he inherited an estate estimated at $6,000,000.

TOWN AND COUNTY.

SOCIETY.

There are 14 prisoners in the county jail.

There are 114 prisoners in the State Prison.

John Piper was down from Virginia yesterday.

D. A. Bender was over from Carson yesterday.

Little Lucy Lindsay is very sick with the croup.

W. R. Chamberlain and J. H. Kinkead have gone to Cisco to look at Theo. Winters' gold mine.

The Virginia City Postoffice has been reduced to a third-rate office, with the salary of the Postmaster at $1,200 per annum.

In the Justice Court yesterday, J. O. Peterson was tried and convicted by a jury for selling whiskey to Indians and sent up for 50 days. A Mr. Cody was also sent over for 30 days for stealing hides. Bill Williams was also sent up for ten days.

There was not as good a crowd out last night as there should have been to enjoy the Barry & Fay performance. The new version of "Muldoo's Picnic" was given in good style, and those who were at the theater were kept in a constant roar of laughter.

County Notes

The dog tax for June was $16. The Sheriff returned $243 11 and the Clerk $182 30 fees for June.

The Auditor collected $143 25 for fees in June. He kept the amount, pending the salary differences between himself and the Board.

There were $12,456 25 in the county treasury on the 6th.

The Justices of the Peace of Franktown received $19 75 fees the past two quarters.

Justice Young, of Reno, received $618 85 for the quarter ending June 30th.

Constable Nash received fees of $681 85 for the quarter ending June 30th.

Constable Shields, of Wadsworth, received $66 35, and Justice August $102 25, as fees, quarter ending June 30th.

George Washington.

The Enterprise truly says: "Among the most pleasing features of the Fourth of July procession in Reno was the miniature impersonation of George Washington by little Robbie Lindsay, the five year-old son of the Grand Marshal, R. H. Lindsay. The youngster was mounted on horseback and rode just behind the Governor and staff. He was dressed in the traditional three-cornered hat, white wig, blue coat, yellow knee-breeches and long vest, and rode with an air of military dignity which was quite amusing. He seemed to understand and appreciate who and what he was made up for pretty well for one so young."

Sympathetic Item.

The Enterprise says: "Carson and Reno are natural rivals, and always jealously fighting each other on some proposition, yet when it comes to public misfortune happening to either community, one is not more ready than the other to bury the hatchet and extend both fraternal sympathy and practical assistance."

Skull Crushed.

Dick Thomas, of Franktown, had his skull crushed in Wednesday in his mine east of Washoe Lake, but just how the accident happened is not known. A physician was called from Carson. The JOURNAL hopes the accident will not prove serious.

University.

The Board of Regents invite proposals for building the new State University. Bids will be received until July 20th. See advertisement elsewhere.

"RENO'S RIGHT HAND."

Our Rival Wires Its Sympathy.

Carson Appeal 7th.

The following dispatch was received last evening:

RENO, July 6, 1885.

D. A. BENDER:—Reno's right hand in sorrow and her purse open to assist in alleviating all distress.

C. C. POWNING,
WM. WEBSTER,
W. O. H. MARTIN,
W. R. CHAMBERLAIN,
T. K. HYMERS,
R. L. FULTON.

Mr. Bender replied: I thank you in behalf of the citizens of Carson, for your kindly expressions of sympathy.

The telegram has been referred to the city authorities. There is at present no cases of distress requiring financial assistance, but we thank you all the same.

D. A. BENDER.

Thumb Torn Off.

The Enterprise of Thursday says: "John Alexander, of Reno, formerly of this city, came to town yesterday morning with a two-horse team. After attending to various business matters he left in the afternoon on his return to Reno, leading a horse behind the wagon by a rope. Passing over the Geiger Grade the lead horse became refractory and suddenly pulled back. Mr. Alexander's left thumb got caught in the rope and was completely pulled out by the roots, as it were, the muscles and tendons being drawn almost from the elbow. He bound up the hand as well as he could and drove on to Reno. The loss of the thumb is bad enough, but the terrible laceration is an added injury and danger to the arm itself."

The Mint Settlement.

The Appeal says the annual settlement is over, and the count showed everything in a perfectly satisfactory condition. It is the general opinion however, that no more money will ever be coined in the Carson Mint.

The Carson Public Building.

The Committee Monday decided to write to Washington to see if the first bid could not be withdrawn; if so they will receive bids for the Adams Block House.

The President has selected Wm. K. Mead for the appointment as United States Marshal for the Territory of Arizona, vice C. I. Tidball. The President has suspended Mark L. Blunt, Register, and Michael H. Fitch, Receiver of the Land Office at Pueblo, Col.

The President has accepted the resignation of P. B. S. Pinchbeck, Surveyor of Customs at New Orleans.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Dr. Smith, of the Medical and Surgical Dispensary, 334 Kearney street, San Francisco, Cal., will be at the Golden Eagle Hotel, Reno, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July the 9th, 10th and 11th, fully prepared to examine and commence the treatment of all persons suffering from diseases of the eye, ear, nasal catarrh, also chronic affections, and all cases of crippled or deformed. As Dr. Smith is well-known over the entire Pacific Coast as a skillful specialist, and as the institution he represents has unequalled experience in the treatment of diseases coming within its special province, it would be well for all who are interested, to avail themselves of this opportunity to consult him—consultation free.
